

Honoring Citizen Conservation
Whidbey Camano Land Trust Awards Nomination Form

Who has made a real difference in land conservation here? As part of the Whidbey Camano Land Trust's 25th anniversary celebration, the Land Trust will recognize those people who have significantly advanced land protection on Whidbey and Camano Islands. Please nominate people who have helped conserve the wildlife habitat, forests, and natural heritage on our precious islands. The deadline for nominations to be received is August 1, 2009.

(please print this form and complete it by hand)

The nominee(s): _____

Which of the six awards do you think is appropriate for this person(s)?

Please describe what this nominee has done to deserve this award? (Tell the story and use the back of this page if necessary)

How would we reach the nominee?

Address _____

Email address _____ Phone _____

Your name _____

How do you know this person(s)?

If we have questions, how can we reach you?

Address _____

Email address _____ Phone _____

Thanks for telling us this story. Send it to us so that we receive it by August 1, 2009.

Please mail the completed form to:

Mully Mullally
PO Box 573
Langley, WA 98260